A HELPFUL GUIDE TO PLANNING YOUR CRUISE

The Ultimate 80s Party®

HEY, PARTY PEOPLE!
THE COUNTDOWN IS ON!

The 80s Cruise Year 11 is getting closer, and it's time to start serious planning for another unforgettable week of big music, bold fashion, outrageous parties and nonstop 80s fun.

From the moment you step onboard, you're leaving ordinary behind. Get ready for incredible live performances, epic Theme Nights, games, parties and all the surprises that can only happen on The Ultimate 80s Party. So, start planning. Start packing. And GET READY!

ONBOARD EXPERIENCE

Once onboard, explore the ship, hit the pool or grab a drink. Drinks are on us! Your cabin should be available around 2:00 PM CT where you'll find your Royal Caribbean SeaPass Card.

Keep your SeaPass with you throughout the cruise. It serves as your cabin key, onboard charge card, entry to the Royal Theatre and boarding pass when leaving and returning to the ship in port.

KNOW YOUR MAIN SHOW TIME

Most nights, the Royal Theatre comes alive with some of the biggest artists of the 80s. Because of theatre capacity, select performances are presented twice so everyone has a chance to see the show.

Your SeaPass Card color determines your Main Show time:

BLUE > 1st Main Show | Approximately 6:15 PM
RED > 2nd Main Show | Approximately 9:00 PM

Guests will only be admitted to their assigned Main Show, and SeaPass Cards will be checked at the theatre entrance. All other shows and performances are open seating unless otherwise indicated.

THEME NIGHTS

OUR ARTISTS BRING THE MUSIC. YOU BRING THE PARTY.

Theme Nights are one of the things that make The 80s Cruise unlike anything else at sea, and our cruisers never disappoint. Every night brings a new excuse to go all out, be creative and turn the ship into something completely different.

Your mission starts now: check out this year's themes, raid the closet and start planning those looks!

DAY 2 • SUNDAY, FEB 28

CAMP 80s DAY

Belly Smacker Competition. Tug-of-War Challenge. Dodgeball. Bragging rights. Camp 80s Day brings classic camp competition to The Ultimate 80s Party, with every win earning points for your camp and one team walking away as champions.

FIND YOUR CAMP. KNOW YOUR COLOR. PACK TO REPRESENT!
Your camp and color are determined by your cabin deck, so find your team before you sail and come ready to compete.

Visit the Camp 80s page in the Booked Guests section at The80sCruise.com for camp assignments, colors and everything you need to know.

MAKE YOUR CABIN PART OF THE PARTY

Think your 80s creativity goes beyond your Theme Night wardrobe? Prove it. Transform your cabin door or Promenade window into an 80s masterpiece and you could walk away with prizes and serious hallway bragging rights.

Not decorating? No problem. Wandering the decks and checking out what your fellow cruisers created is half the fun.

CABIN DOOR DECORATING CONTEST

Break out the neon, mixtapes, movie references, album covers, arcade icons and whatever else inspires you. Transform your cabin door into an 80s masterpiece, for a chance to earn onboard bragging rights and an exclusive prize.

PRO TIPS: Magnets are one of the easiest ways to decorate without damaging your cabin door. Just keep the peephole clear. Security will remove anything covering it. Even the 80s had rules.

STANDARD CABIN DOOR – 78″ Tall x 28″ Wide
ACCESSIBLE CABIN DOOR – 78″ Tall x 34″ Wide

PROMENADE VIEW WINDOW DECORATING CONTEST

Got a Promenade View Cabin? You've got an audience.

The Royal Promenade is at the center of the action throughout the week, and your window gives you prime real estate to show off your 80s creativity to everyone passing by.

Go big. Get creative.
Give them something worth looking up for.

PREPARING FOR YOUR CRUISE

The 80s Cruise Year 11 will be here before you know it. Take care of these important details now so that when you arrive in New Orleans, the only thing left to worry about is how many pairs of sunglasses you really need.

FIND YOUR PASSPORT. NOW.

Don't wait until packing week to discover your passport is missing or expired. Find it now and confirm that it's valid through September 6, 2027, six months after our sailing.

U.S. citizens without a passport may travel with an original birth certificate and valid state ID. The birth certificate must include a raised seal, and the name must match the state ID. Non-U.S. citizens should review travel document requirements in the Booked Guests Portal at The80sCruise.com.

Do this one today. Future you will be glad you did.

PROTECT YOUR VACATION

YOU'VE PLANNED IT. YOU'VE PAID FOR IT. NOW PROTECT IT.

Travel insurance can provide coverage for certain medical emergencies, travel disruptions, lost luggage and other unexpected problems. Remember, payments made toward your reservation are non-refundable.

Insurance may be purchased up to 48 hours before sailing, but purchasing early may provide broader coverage. For more information visit the80scruise.com/travel-insurance

Hopefully you'll never need it. But if something goes sideways, you'll be glad you have it.

GETTING TO NEW ORLEANS

The party starts in the Big Easy on Saturday, February 27, 2027. We strongly recommend arriving in New Orleans at least one day early to allow for unexpected travel delays.

When Royal Caribbean Online Check-In opens, you'll select a Terminal Arrival Time. Please do not arrive before your assigned time to help reduce congestion at the terminal.

FIRST TIME ON THE 80S CRUISE? CRUISE LIKE AN ALUM.

Welcome to the party! There's a LOT happening on The 80s Cruise, and your first instinct may be to try to do everything. DON'T.

Take it from the guests who know their way around The Ultimate 80s Party:

YOU CAN'T DO IT ALL.
Pick your must-see concerts and events, then give yourself permission to miss something. There's always another party happening somewhere.

WEAR THE COMFORTABLE SHOES.
You're going to walk, stand and dance. Then do it all again tomorrow. Your feet will thank you.

HYDRATE. EAT. SLEEP. REPEAT.
Seven days is a marathon, not a sprint. Drink some water. Eat a real meal. Take a nap. The party will still be here.

TALK TO PEOPLE.
Say hello to the person next to you at a concert, across from you at trivia or wearing an incredible Theme Night costume. The community is one of the best parts of The 80s Cruise.

TRY SOMETHING YOU DIDN'T PLAN.
Check out an artist you don't know. Walk into a game show. Play trivia. Join an activity. Some of your favorite moments will be the ones you never planned.

DON'T JUST CHASE THE HEADLINERS.
The 80s Cruise happens everywhere. Smaller shows, activities, Theme Nights, late-night parties and unexpected moments are all part of what makes this week special.

MOST IMPORTANTLY: MAKE IT YOUR CRUISE.
Go hard. Take it easy. Dress up every night. Dance until 2:00 AM. Hang by the pool with new friends. There's no right way to do The 80s Cruise.

By the time we get back to New Orleans, you won't be a freshman anymore.

HEADING HOME

EVENTUALLY, THEY MAKE US GIVE THE SHIP BACK.

When we return to New Orleans on March 6, 2027, the ship must clear U.S. Customs and Border Protection before guests can disembark. We recommend booking return flights no earlier than 12:00 PM and allowing time for transportation from the cruise terminal to the airport.

Until then, we have a week of 80s music, parties and memories to make. ROCK ON!
